

One Last Mistake

LP

Ahead on the rise again, there's a road
Suddenly something is up ahead, I see somebody I don't know Dreams are all I own, I guess I should go Love is the shadow of loneliness and Lord, I've been alone

I feel with my base, here I go
Yeah, your body is calling my name

So one last mistake (I need a change)
Let's make one last mistake, the harder stuff is always love, I
guess
(Time will heal the pain) It's already starting to fade
Let's make one last mistake, the harder stuff is always love wh en it ends

Can't fool the time I spent throwing stones
Am I destined to be desolate
Building bridges to be alone

I feel with my base, here I go
Yeah, your body is calling my name

So one last mistake (I need a change)
Let's make one last mistake, the harder stuff is always love, I
guess
(Time will heal the pain) It's already starting to fade
Let's make one last mistake, the harder stuff is always love wh
en it ends
The harder stuff is always love when it ends

Whether it's just one or someone I don't know how you can drink this stuff
A little taste of love, just enough, yea you know you'll hit th e harder stuff

So one last mistake (I need a change)
Let's make one last mistake, the harder stuff is always love, I
guess
(Time will heal the pain) It's already starting to fade
Let's make one last mistake, the harder stuff is always love wh
en it ends
