

Yesterday

LSG

My friend, my friend, my friend
Don't get me wrong, I had to write this song
'Cause I don't believe you're feeling me
I want input from you desperately

But it seems you keep turning your head
You say that you love me, you say that you're down
But when times got hard couldn't find you around, now

Why does it have to be this way?
We said friends for life through the good and the bad days
True love ain't supposed to be this way
There's a cloud and it's raining on our yesterday, sing
Raining down, raining down

No I ain't mad, oh no, just a little confused
Is it that morning that keeps you clinging to me
We've had ups, we've had downs so we're even to me me

Said I love you, yeah and the love you've given to me
But it ain't like it was, fuss and fighting so much
When I'm trying to find just a little peace of mind

Why does it have to be this way?
We said friends for life through the good and the bad days
True love ain't supposed to be this way
There's a cloud and it's raining on our yesterday, yeah
Raining down, raining down

Yesterday you could do nothing, no
Yesterday it was just a happy song
Now today it's just a bad melody
And what's worse we're singing in two different keys

Yesterday I knew I could count on you
Yesterday the clouds were gone the skies were blue
Now today is gray with chance of rain
The rain has come and blown away our yesterday
Raining down, raining down

Why does it have to be this way?
We said friends for life through the good and the bad days
True love ain't supposed to be this way
There's a cloud and it's raining on our yesterday

Raining down, raining down
Raining down, raining down
Raining down, raining down
...
