

Gone To The Sea

Lucero

She's beautiful and deep blue
But she's cold and tragic too
There ain't nothing to say, or to do
Been landlocked and alone
With the Siren song
Now my heart is gone with her to the sea
I can hear her from the shores
So I dare not to sail anymore
A voice a would gladly drowned for
Been land locked and alone
With the Siren song
Now my heart is gone with her to the sea
Been landlocked and alone
With the Siren song
Now my heart is gone with her to the sea
Still landlocked and alone
With the Siren song
Cause my heart is gone with her to the sea
