

The Only One

Lucero

She never says hi to me no more
And that's a pretty good way for her to even the score
Things went bad, I guess it don't mean much
She used to say I was the only one
She never says hi to me no more

She never even looks my way no more
And I can hear her talking through the bedroom door
She's not here for me, cause we're all done
I know damn well I was the only one
I know damn well I was the only one
She never even looks my way no more
She never even looks my way no more
