

Like You Love Me

Lucie Silvas

Woah... mm mmm

It's not every day you wake up
And admit who you really are
Most days it's easier to shut yourself up
And never look that far

This is me, I'm covered
What I hid behind the door
And everything she says angers
I'm apologizing for

Do you see her when you see me?
Understand her insecurities?
And accept the part she plays in me?
Could you love her....like you love me?

Like you love me
Ohh, like you love me
Woahhh....

I'd rather be who you think I am
See myself through your eyes
Cos the mirror you use can't be too harsh
And I want it to tell me lies

So today I'll be brave and I'll face myself
Show you who I really am
Cos wherever I go she follows me
Can you reach out for her hand?

Do you see her when you see me?
Understand her insecurities?
Ohh, And accept the part she plays in me?
Could you love her....like you love me?

I'm not perfect but I try to be
Oh, could you really have the hold in me
Sometimes what you get isn't what you see
Could you believe in her, like you believe in me?

Ohhh....hey hey, yeh yeh...ohh woah..

Mmm...do you love her, woah...

Do you see her when you see me?
Understand her insecurities
Ohh, And accept the part she plays in me?
Could you love her...woah

Do you see her when you see me
Understand her insecurities
Ohh, and accept the part she plays in me
Could you love her.....like you love me?

Like you love me
Ohh...like you love me

Woah, like you....love me....
