Near the bay there is my secret place
Every morning I stand there and gaze
Waiting for little dolphin
See him floating there

Swimming there where the wind chases waves
Dolphin and I playing simple games
Recognize every movement
Of my golden friend

Golden dolphin wait for me
Always with you wanna be
Same as you I do really care

Floating where I want
And never know what's waiting there
I know that you will understand
You will always be my friend
I'll try to follow the rushing stream
And I wonder will it be one or a thousand miles
Neverending, long and tiring miles

Near the bay where I know every stone
Every morning standing on my own
Little boat's ploughing waters
Shining in the dawn

Near the place where I would like to stay
Fisherman is waiting for his day
Ready to sail the waters
Smiling on his way

My golden dolphin wait for me
Always with you wanna be
Same as you I do really care
Floating where I want
And never know what's waiting there
I know that you will understand
You will always be my friend
I'll try to follow the rushing stream
Wondering if mine will be a lucky way

Rec.
Water is soothing
So I float and dream
The dolphin would wait
Only if I stopped him
But I don't know the way
So I swim here and I swim there
I dive the deepest sea
And I can see
The ocean floor

But anyway, I must say
I can't any more

Keep on singing
Golden dolphin wait for me
Always with you wanna be
Same as you I do really care
Floating where I want
And never know what's waiting there
I know that you will understand
And forever I'll be your greatest friend
I'll try to follow the rushing stream
And I wonder if it would be long way

Golden dolphin wait for me
Now'n'ever together we will be
Same as you I do really care
Floating where I want
And never know what's waiting there
I know that you will understand
And forever I'll be your greatest friend
I'll try to follow the rushing stream
And I wonder if it would be
A lucky way
