Learning ancient monologue
So strange it seems to me
In honour of Juliet
A ball's gonna be

There she'll meet her Romeo
In a medeival hall
I'm older than Juliet
One year more, bang on

Nowadays
There're no balls
And music till the morning
To my balcony
Wonder who is gonna climb
Tell me why their love is everlasting
Will I ever live through the same feeling
Yes or no?
Are you Romeo?

None wanders the labyrinth
To find their way to me
Oh, this charming Juliet
Is younger than me

He won't tell me: I love you
I offer you my life
I'm older than Juliet
Know what this world's like

Nowadays
There're no balls and music
Till the morning
To my balcony wonder who is gonna climb

Tell me why their love is everlasting
Will I ever enjoy the same feeling
Yes or no?
Are you Romeo?

Learning ancient monologue
So sharp it seems to be
That sorrowful Juliet
Is probably me

Suddenly
Beauteous ball and music
Reaching morning
To my balcony
You alone may softly glide

Tell me why their love is everlasting
Will I ever suffer the same feeling ?

Nowadays
There're no balls and music
Till the morning
To my balcony wonder who is gonna climb

Tell me why their love is everlasting
Will I ever possess the same feeling?
Yes or no?
Are you Romeo?
