Hello puppy, did you lose your way home
Will you go with me
Ya little silky ears
Don't be
So unhappy, come on
Hello puppy, did you lose your way home
Now it's getting dark
Hey, will you sleep in park
Tell me
Where you belong
There's no-one in the park
You're whining in the dark
Hello puppy, did you lose your way home
Now it's getting dark
Hey, will you sleep in park
Tell me
Where you belong
Come on
Hello puppy, did you lose your way home
Will you go my way
I'll give you for tonight
At least
A place to stay
I have no-one to greet
Waiting for tiny treat
Wonder what's gonna be
Where to sleep
I'm so cold, take me home
Please, believe me
I have nowhere to go
If you want, shake my paw
Take me far, far away
Let me stay with you, mate
And I will never leave you
So what puppy, did you lose your way home
Don't you stare at me
So sad and helplessly
You see
I can't take you with me
So what puppy, did you lose your way home
Shall I let you be
Or free you from the lead
Can't leave you on the road, hey
I have no-one to greet
Waiting for little treat
Wonder what's gonna be
Where to sleep
I am so cold, take me home
Please, believe me
If you want shake my paw
Take me far, far away
Let me stay with you, mate
And I will never leave you

Hello puppy, did you lose your way home
Little silky ears, I cannot leave you here
I know I wanna be with you
Little puppy now you've got your new home
Every single day
We enjoy and we play
And then run far away
Now there 's someone to greet
Knows I'll give him a treat
We know what's gonna be
You and me can't you see
We are the best friends ever
You have somewhere to go
Stroke you and shake your paw
Take you for little walk
He is mine, we are fine
Now you know and that is all
