So many days
I've kept my secret
I am so happy can't you
See my heart is dancing
I fell in love
Would you believe it
But he's so bashful
so I only see him hiding
I know he's there
Watching me from a distance
If only I knew his plans
He's my secret lover
If I knew what's he like
Then I 'd soon discover
The way to his timid heart
Oh it's so hard
The unknown dwells
Higher than birds fly
Under the sky with shining
Stars and silver moonlight
I fell in love
And I feel so fine
But he passes me by
Not showing what he feels Why's he so shy
If only he would even try Smiling when he passing by
He's my secret lover
If I knew what's he like
Secret lover
Once bitten twice as shy
Please hang on a while
Secret lover
If I knew what's he like
He's my secret lover
Once bitten twice as shy
Truly secret lover
Will be
Still keep on hiding
He knows I like him
And I'm still waiting
For the day when I for the first time will be kissing him
and all my dreams 'll come true
