Born To Be Loved

Lucinda Williams

You weren't born to be abandoned You weren't born to be forsaken You were born to be loved You were born to be loved

You weren't born to be mistreated And you weren't born to misguided You were born to be loved You were born to be loved

You weren't born to be a slave You weren't born to be disgraced You were born to be loved Hmm hmm, you were born to be loved

You weren't born to be abused You weren't born to lose You were born to be loved You were born to be loved

You weren't born to suffer And you weren't born for nothing You were born to be loved Hmm hmm, you were born to be loved
