

Sweet Love

Lucinda Williams

Who would have ever guessed
I would be here where I am like this
With you, my dear
My sweet, sweet, sweet love
To drink my words in
And make each moment become
A celebration
My breath is yours to share
Everything in me
And of me is yours forever
If only for your blue eyes
I would choose never
To live a day without you
Here is my love letter
My love, so true

My sweet, sweet, sweet love
My sweet, sweet, sweet love
Sweet, sweet love
