

Guilty As Sin

Lucy Kaplansky

Guilty as sin
I know where you've been
Guess she was alone last night

You took what you want
Now it's all gone
I was just another free ride

And I just needed something
Really next to nothing
And all I've got is another one
That won't be mine

As if we never kissed
You cross another off your list
But I know where you've been
I know where you've been
Guilty as sin

In that motel not so far away
You said there's so much you couldn't say
Then you went and told me anyway

My new red shoes under the rented bed
Stolen kisses are sweet you said
And I bought that tired line again

Do you know how it feels to be second best?
Nothing more and so much less
I wanna be the one who wins and turns away

As if we never kissed
You cross another off your list
But I know where you've been
I know where you've been
Guilty as sin

You found something in me
And I found something in you
It wasn't worth very much

That's one thing that is true
Just promises and lies
Promises and lies

As if we never kissed
You cross another off your list
But I know where you've been
I know where you've been
Guilty as sin
