

I Know You

Lucy Schwartz

You do this every time, so well
You leave me breathless
I know your every line, so well
But still I'm helpless

Watching you
Wanting you

I know you
I know you so well
Why don't you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you don't see me
Anymore

There's something in your eyes
Can't tell, where I've seen it before
You're wearing your disguise, so well
So why have I been

Watching you
Wanting you

I know you
I know you so well
Why don't you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you don't see me
Anymore

Oh, Oh, Oh
Oh, Oh, Oh,

I know you
I know you so well
Why don't you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you don't see me

I know you
I know you so well
Why don't you come on free me
I know you
I know you so well
But you don't see me

Anymore
