

In The Arms

Lucy Schwartz

Tell me what I wanna hear
Tell me there's nothing to fear
Tell me that I lose my head
So listen to my heart instead

When I'm held in the arms of this waking fear
When I'm held in the arms
Can you find me dear

I'll tell you what you wanna hear
I'm not gonna go nowhere
I'm not gonna break your plans
I could never disappear

When you're held in the arms of this waking fear
When you're held in the arms
Can you find me dear

Can you find your way back again
Can you find your way back again

When you're held in the arms of this waking fear

Can you find your way back again
Can you find your way back again

When you're held in the arms of this waking fear
When you're held in the arms
Can you find me dear
