

If

Lucy Spraggan

If you don't want me to hold your hand
Then I'll be fine and I'll try to understand
But if you fall and I'm not there
It'd break my heart and that's not fair

I'll have time for you when time is running out
I'll have faith when you have doubts
I'll take your side when there's no proof
If you want me to

If you need time to be alone
Walls make a house but we make a home
If there's some lonely nights ahead
I'll stick to my side of the bed

I'll have time for you when time is running out
I'll have faith when you have doubts
I'll take your side when there's no proof
If you want me to.

And I'd do all that I can do
I'll make a stand for you
And I'd fix all that I can do
With my bare hands for you

I'll have time for you when time is running out
I'll have faith when you have doubts
I'll take your side when there's no proof
But that's if you want me to
