

Is This Hollywood

Woodward, Lucy

August, no clue, 2002,
I didn't see coming, even when I came,
I got what I asked for,
3000 miles and no more wondering,
If I need a change,
Ain't it strange,

Is this Hollywood?
'Cause I feel a bit displaced,
But I kinda like it,
Oh I just know it's gonna be good,
I've already decided, yeah,
I wouldn't leave it if I could,
Disoriented as I am,
Is this, is this Hollywood?

The waitress knows my story,
'Cause I'm here every single morning,
She calls you New York,
I tell her you're long gone,
And you're easy to forget,
How lucky can a girl get?
The outta site works a charm,
Ain't I strong?

And you know it's time,
I can always change my mind- okay,
I can come and I can go,
That's all I need to know- today

And my eyes are buggin' yeah,
I got a brand new neighborhood that I'm really loving,
Oh I wouldn't leave it if I could,
Disoriented as I am
