Sister, mother so glad to see you so glad your parol came through so glad everybody came out this morning we reading from the book of hush, today verse sixty-nine, come on somebody, come on somebody good to see all of you came out this morning even though some of you just leave at one twelve smellin like booty, and hennessee, come on cabasille double shots, ha-hah, it dont matter!

Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang

Im loving the way your legs go so far back, your one of those flexible girls I figure your daddy always said you was one of the best in this world But never the less in this world, Im just proffesional girl I teach 'em a lesson, have 'em stressin and confessin the girl How good it was, and how good it could be, if they just tried it Taking my double dosage skip the daily dick diet T-ried it, they so excited, and cant hide it Im trying to do my thang, but you gotta be quiet

Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing
Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang
Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing
Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang

Now even when i just come in your house and cover your mouth because your momma is home You grippin' the sheets and making a effort not to holler and moan You got to keep it on the hush, cause we in no rush You tellin' me its the little things that mean so much And its an illusion to think you can match what I can do best So if ya man call, tell him to put some hair on his chest But he dont even have to know, we keepin it on the low You walking it like a dog, and stay working it like a pro, so..

Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing
Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang
Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing
Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang

Imma taste ya neck, and begin to nibble around your earlobes
Down to your belly button, then im un-snappin' your bra thinkin' your titties are tryna tell me somethin
Hard nipples, colder then ice-sicles
Workin' it with my tounge, you can just tell me if it tickles
Freaky deaky kinda sneaky, Ludacris and the gang
Disturbin' the peace, we runnin' the streets and steady slangin' them thangs
But you gotta keep the noise down, in order to keep the boy down
Its joy all around, and you know how it sounds, if you just..

Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang Keep it on the hush, dont say nothing Aint gone be no talking, while Im doing my thang (2x)

As the crime scene evolves, the doors are open, the doors are open

Look at you sister Johnson in the front row with thongs on, your legs open tryna tempt me keep it on the hush, i'll be over at about seven o'clock keep it on the hush, shhh
