The Horror Of Our Love

I'm a killer Cold and wrathful Silent sleeper I've been inside your bedroom I've murdered half the town Left you love notes on their headstones I'll fill the graveyards Until I have you

Moonlight walking I smell your softness Carnivorous and lusting To track you down among the pines I want you stuffed into my mouth Hold you down and tear you open Live inside you Oh, love I'd never hurt you

But I'll grind against your bones Until our marrows mix I will eat you slowly Ohhhhh The horror of our love Never so much blood pulled through my veins Ohhhh The horror of our love Never so much blood

I wake in terror Blackbirds screaming Dark cathedrals spilling Midnight on their alters I'm your servant My immortal Pale and perfect Such unholy heaving The statues close their eyes The room is changing Break my skin And drain me

Ancient language Speak through fingers The awful edges Where you end and I begin Inside your mouth I cannot see There's catastrophe In everything I'm touching As I sweat and crush you

And I hold your beating chambers Until they beat no more You die like angels sing Ohhhhh The horror of our love Never so much blood pulled through my veins

Ludo

Ohhhhh The horror of our love Never so much blood

You're a ghost, love Nightgown flowing Your body blue and walking Along the continental shelf You are a dream among the sharks Beautiful and terrifying Living restless We dance in dark suspension

And you bury me In the ocean floor beneath you Where they'll never hear us scream Ohhhh The horror of our love Never so much blood pulled through my veins Ohhhh The horror of our love Never so much blood
