

I Wish

Luis Fonsi

I wish, I can still feel your body laying by me
Sometimes is like you never left
I never thought I could miss someone like this
But no one else can ever take your place
I close my eyes and see your face

Everyday I wake up thinking how will I get through this
I'm losing my faith
I wish there was something to get over you
I wish that my heart would remember we're through

I wish I could see you walk by
And ignore you like someone I once knew
I wish I could look in your eyes and be strong
To say I don't need you around anymore

I wish I could find someone new and forget you
Wish I never met you, I wish I could move on
But though I try, there's nothing left for me to do
There's just no getting over you

Girl, you know I never meant to hurt you
I know how much I made you cry
I never thought you'd ever say goodbye
I was so wrong and I admit, forgive me, I regret it
If only all this pain could bring you back again

Everyday I wake up thinking how will I get through this
I'm losing my faith
I wish there was something to get over you
I wish that my heart would remember we're through

I wish I could see you walk by
And ignore you like someone I once knew
I wish I could look in your eyes and be strong
To say I don't need you around anymore

I wish I could find someone new and forget you
Wish I never met you, I wish I could move on
But though I try, there's nothing left for me to do
There's just no getting over you

Baby, I still love you

Everyday I wake up thinking how will I get through this
I'm losing my faith
I wish there was something to get over you
I wish that my heart would remember we're through

I wish I could see you walk by
And ignore you like someone I once knew
I wish I could look in your eyes and be strong
To say I don't need you around anymore

I wish I could find someone new and forget you
Wish I never met you, I wish I could move on
But though I try, there's nothing left for me to do

There's just no getting over you

Everyday I wake up thinking how will I get through this
I'm losing my faith
I wish there was something to get over you
I wish that my heart would remember we're through

I wish I could see you walk by
And ignore you like someone I once knew
I wish I could look in your eyes and be strong
To say I don't need you around anymore

I wish I could find someone new and forget you
Wish I never met you, I wish I could move on
But though I try, there's nothing left for me to do
There's just no getting over you
