

Secret

Luis Fonsi

Oh, ooh, hey

I wanna be that guy who can say, "You're mine?"
When we were standing in the moving light
I wanna pick you out of a crowd
Shout it out so loud, so everyone hears me

And I would tell all the world
But if you decide that's not what you like
If you wanna keep this quiet then baby
I'll be your secret promise, you'll keep it

And I'll be your friend whenever you need it
'Cause when I'm holding you tonight
You'll know our secret is right, so right
(I'll be your, I'll be your secret promise, you'll keep it)

Sometimes I feel like tearing down these walls
That keep us trapped inside
I wanna take away their doubt
Show what I'm about, so they can ignore me

I wanna hold you tonight
But no, no, no, no
That's not what they're like
No they wanna keep us quiet

So I'll be, I'll be your secret promise, you'll keep it
And I'll be your friend whenever you need it
'Cause when I'm holding you tonight
You'll know our secret is right, so right

Don't let them tell you how to be Just open up your eyes and see
That you belong to me
(That you belong to me baby)

Why should we care what people say?
(Why should we care?)
Why should we let them stand in our way?
(Stand in our way?)
We don't have to be afraid

I'll be your secret promise, you'll keep it
And I'll be your friend whenever you need it
I'll be your secret promise, you'll keep it
(Promise you'll keep it)

And I'll be your friend whenever you need it
'Cause when I'm holding you tonight
(I'm holding you tonight)
You'll know our secret is right
You'll know our secret is so
You'll know our secret is so right

I'll be your secret
(I wanna be your secret)

Promise you'll keep it
(I wanna be your secret)
And I'll be your friend
Whenever you need it
(Whenever you need it)

'Cause when I'm holding you tonight
(Tonight)
You'll know our secret is right
(You'll know our secret is so right)
I'll be your secret

I wanna be that guy who can say, "You're mine?"
I wanna give you the world
I wanna give you the world
I wanna be that guy who can say, "You're mine?"
I wanna give you the world
I wanna give you the world
I'll be your secret
