

Primavera

Luka Bloom

You were sent into this world
In the darkest winter days
How did I have such fortune to know you?
Know the sweetness of your kiss
Being shaken by your smile
Knowing, knowing your love

Me, see me now,
I am August oakleaf
You, yes you are,
You are Primavera

In this cold, dogmatic world
Where the righteous are on song
They talk God on every side
And all humility is gone
You are a beacon in the crowd
You bring lavender to calm
When the shouting gets too loud
Your compassion is at hand

Me, see me now,
I am August oakleaf
You, yes you are,
You are Primavera

It's a dangerous time
You must find your voice
Hold your head up high
Walk among us all
When your beauty is unveiled
And simplicity prevails
Then the world can know your love

Me, see me now,
I am August oakleaf
You, yes you are,
You are Primavera

Me, see me now,
I am August oakleaf
You, yes you are,
You are Primavera
