

Embrace Me

Lullacry

Give me your teardrops
And say that you're mine
See how wicked are
The restless ones in grace

It's our twisted love
That turns me on
I never wanted to go
Where the memories lie
In the endless night, yeah

I shall put my arms
Around this fear, don't be afraid now
'Cause all the things we have
Are stronger than life's path

I never wanted to go
Where the memories lie

It's still better to be alive
Than to be dead in heaven
Your touch is so bitter sweet
I want you to embrace me

Oh yeah, embrace me

I never wanted to go
Where the memories lie

It's still better to be alive
Than to be dead in heaven
Your touch is so bitter sweet
I want you, you to embrace me
