Lullacry

Here I am standing above all
Waiting for the moment I fall
I lost it somehow
And I can't get this feeling any more

I don't know where I'm going now
I never thought I could be out of bounds
I am The Queen of the night
Eternal fire by my side

I only wanna hide
And run out of sight
These flames are getting so high
Even if they have seen
What I've always been
They call me The Firequeen

Here I am standing above all
Waiting for the moment I fall
I am The Queen of the night
Eternal fire by my side

I only wanna hide
And run out of sight
These flames are getting so high
Even if they have seen
What I've always been
They call me The Firequeen

Firequeen

I only wanna hide
And run out of sight
These flames are getting so high
Even if they have seen
What I've always been
They call me The Firequeen
