

To Sir With Love

Lulu

Those schoolgirl days
Of telling tales, and biting nails, are gone
But in my mind,
I know they still will live on and on
But how do you thank someone
Who has taken you from crayons to perfume?
It isn't easy, but I'll try
If you wanted the sky,
I would write across the sky in
letters,
That would soar a thousand feet high:
"To Sir, With Love"
The
time has come
For closing books; and long last looks must end
And as I
leave,
I know that I am leaving my best friend
A friend who taught me
right from wrong,
And weak from strong -- that's a lot to learn But --
what can I give you in return?
If you wanted the moon,
I would try to make a start . . . but I Would rather you let me give my heart
To Sir,
With Love

Note: This is the title song from the 1967 film "To Sir With Love," starring Sidney Poitier, Suzy Kendall and Judy Geeson.
