Symphony Of Sighs

Luna Obscura

My wounds are open and I bleed
Time passing by so fast
But i'm standing here all alone
Living forever into my past

Empty tears from broken eyes
Frozen fears from twisted minds
My wounds are made of lies
Can't you hear the symphony?
The symphony of sighs

My dreams are dead and I'm dying
Into the coldness of the night

Empty words from empty hearts
Bloody touches from faithless hands
My wounds are made of lies
Can't you hear the symphony?
The symphony of sighs

Transparent designed pain
In the eyes of the uncoloured soul
The key...is lost...
