

In Silence

LUNA SEA

Ahh I hated silence at that time
The wind wound up the sand like it was laughing
Even if you strain your eyes you won't find any answers
The sky embraced the sea that day in silence that is in silence endlessly in silence softly oh my heart was lost

Ahh I slipped through a few loves Slipped through cities the early morning secret Even if you listen closely I only wanted the sound of the waves close by that day in silence I was in silence gazing at you in silence softly oh my heart was overflowing

Countless moons illuminated the two of us Inside of an eternal kiss never fading

Bright white feathers floated in the sky like they were trying to say something
The momentary wind was almost teasing because this era is ragin g right now in silence softly in silence I'm searching in silence softly oh my heart I want to find

Ahh it flows by time it flows by
