

The Love Song that was engraved in the paradise is engulfed by the swarming city Is LOVE on the verge of extinction?
But the clock won't stop...

To my eyes now, you look like the last goddess
I want to protect...

...YOU, you, and you only Please save this world with your most loving smile

loveless lovemaking
In this count-down
Please don't let go of your precious things

loveless lovemaking
In the count-down
Your precious things...
Bt us two will forever stay this way.

loveless lovemaking
Are they, are we, going to vanish into the universe, without being able to cross each other's hearts?
You and I,
We're already in the count-down.
