

Mother

LUNA SEA

When I can't even see these new times
I'm enveloped by this disrupted sky
Since I walk from my soul's spring
Under this dirty sky's vault

Until the day when my abandoned favours will disappear
Until the day when the beautiful flowers will fade
New soul's mother, messiah
An ancient relief speaks

Mother of love, a miracle now saves me
Mother of love, wherever I go, whatever I do
Mother of love, a miracle now saves me
Mother of love, wherever I go, whatever I do
Mother of love, daybreak now guides me
Mother of love, I need love, I need to love
