

When I look into your big brown eyes
I see no one there I can despise
When I see deep in your soul
I feel so safe just holding on
But they tell me that itçf□ okay
That theyçf□e raping lots of women every single day
Bolwing away all the children
If they were yours what would you do?
I want to know
Why are you so spoilt
I want to know
Why are you so spoilt
Painfully I watch the sunspots fade
My home is gone my body decayed
Içf□ seconds away from all of you
When we meet again what will you do?
Our eyes are burnt now we cançf□ see
Our hands are scorched we cannot feel
The war is ours and now you know weçf□e all to blame
Itçf□ such a shame
I want to know
Why are you so spoilt
I want to know
Why are you so spoilt
Never seen a war in my country
Never watched my sisters die
Never felt a burn of Nepalm
Never lost my hair to a flame of destiny
Donçf□ drink the milk itçf□ spoiled
Donçf□ breathe the air itçf□ spoiled
And donçf□ step on the grass, Sam, itçf□ spoiled!
In the red red acid rain
And in and out of our remains - spoiled
Içf□ once removed, Içf□ twice removed
Içf□ so removed from the pain
So I remain spoiled spoiled
So I stay wrapped in your womb
So safe so safe inside your room
Holding on and holding on and holding on and on and on
I want to know
Why are you so
I want to know
Why are you so
I want to know
Why are you so
I want to know
Why are you so
Spoiled!
