

Beside the Driver

Lunarsea

Enter in the blazing car
Don't look at him like if he was a jailbird, he opened the door with diabolic smile
Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, don't be afraid
Today is the day to catch the wind in your hair Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, don't be afraid today is the day to catch the wind in your hair
Know down boundaries of morality
Get off the grief for another moment, pen's stroke of yesterday is only there
Is only there in the oblivion
Lightning building rapes the sky over us
Sounds future cities that never sleep
You know...
Hiring the driver and forget everything, don't hit the brakes Heavy foot on gas and push on and on Thanks to him you can forget
Shooting on 666 motorway with ambition
Good intentions and hopes at the sides
Let burn this shit, smile when you think that people
Would buy these things
If someone is tired, and wanna contribute, I recommend the driv er
Lightning building rapes the sky over us
Sounds future cities that never sleep
You know...
