

Magnitude 9.6

Lunarsea

Someone's pushing me over edge
Earth starts to quake tonight
Don't resign to be a simple man
Human's only just a word

Is it the crushing society
To offer us winning modifications?

Neurotic puppets are loafing about
In this crib now praying
Now swearing

Vein, vein, you search the vein
Down, down, ignorance sniffs apostles
Any damage must be paid for

Force in my body is nine point six
The adrenaline inside
Transforms me in a techno beast
Magnitude runs faster for the peak
Oh, nine point six

Face police sirens like a tiger
New solution for the weak

Mixed in syringe
Pump the vein and inject

Neurotic puppets are loafing about
In this crib now praying
Now swearing

Fine, fine, I feel fine
Fail, fail, no future in a quicksand
Antidote for the new struggle

Force in my body is nine point six
The rising hysteria
And sweat that you release
Magnitude runs faster for the peak
Oh, nine and six

Room is twisting on borderline
But the time doesn't have much time
Your problems are flying
To the solar circle bite

Pill in hand and
Ecstasy to catch something in bloom
Your problems died
In the solar circle bite

Vein, vein, you search the vein
Down, down, ignorance sniffs apostles
Any damage must be paid for

Someone's pushing me over edge

Earth starts to quake tonight
Don't resign to be a simple man
Human's only just a word

Force in my body is nine point six
The adrenaline inside
Transforms me in a techno beast
Force in my body is nine point six
The rising hysteria
And sweat that you release
Magnitude runs faster for the peak
Oh, nine and six
