Right To Be Wrong

No one is right or wrong No one to blame No matter if you are strong Nothing to gain Even the lies are true in a dream This is for real Every single day you need me

Don't take the right from me The right to be wrong Don't be scared to be loved For I take the final right to be wrong

Never believe I'm right Never be brave Whenever you loose your pride Calling for grace Even the silence doesn't heal The way you feel Every time you fail to love me

Don't Take the right from me The right to be wrong Don't be scared to be loved For I take the final right to be wrong The right to be wrong Am I right?
