

Devotion

Luscious Jackson

I'm an underwater fraulein
I'm an underwater fraulein
all I know is my rhyme
all I know is my rhyme
long lost daughter of mine can you send me a sign
can you send me a sign

Feels like devotion
under my skies
feels like devotion
makes the rockets fly

And I don't know if a word can explain all the possibilities and I hope it is clear I don't think complaining is the answer here
I'm an underwater fraulein
I'm an underwater fraulein

And I think sometimes you're right when I'm wrong and I think sometimes you're wrong when I'm right
Thank God I can see your side

(give me a little while / I will see your side)
