

Lover's Moon

Luscious Jackson

Yesterday winter spoke and told me you had gone I guess I should've known you wouldn't stay too long and I've never been closer to the sea I've never been closer to the sea went to the widow's walk to see if you'd returned walked 'til I couldn't speak and all my words had burned
I've never been closer to the sea
I've never been closer to the sea

Do I speak too soon
Under the lover's moon?

So I keep lookin' out the waves keep me alive
I serenade every night just waitin' for a sign I hope that they send you
back to me

Do I speak too soon
Under the lover's moon?
