

Nervous Breakthrough

Luscious Jackson

sometimes somebody can bring you down so far below anywhere you've gone
sometimes somebody can bring you down so far below anywhere you know so much so fast feels like you can't take the pain but remember there's no going back something's so broken down busted and underground
but here's your chance to surrender thanks to you i had a nervous breakthrough lay down your gun, lay down your pack it's time to recognize the fact that all the best things make you nervous and all the best things come in disguise so much so fast feels like you can't take the pain but remember there's no going back somethings so broken down

busted and underground

It's the thing that creeps into your feet
It's the thing that flows into the beat It's the thing that puts music in your soul It's the thing that lets everybody know
It's the thing that creeps into your feet
I was off kilter, now I got shelter thanks to you I'm gonna breakthrough.
