

Space Diva

Luscious Jackson

She got unlimited missions supernatural visions superlunar ambitions extreme expeditions I got all my own reasons and I've only just begun I can't live inside of fear not in my space age

All the divas are doin' it

Somebody said something they said never be too good 'cause that would be too much yeah that would be too much well the jaws of life will decide will you?

Space Diva I'm a believer
Space Diva be a believer

Well I need some Diva some divine diva to wake up and wander to walk like a soldier
'cause I need to fly sometime with all due respect to you.
