

Cat's Chorus

Lush

Drinking, sitting in a corner smiling to the others
Arriving here we are again
Talking, telling all out stories, laughing at the things
That we've all been through over all the years

And as the hours pass 'til midnight
We'll sing together in the moonlight
And looking back to when we first met

We seemed so different, so many years passed, so much time
And we're still here whatever times may come, don't ever change
Oh, we'll be laughing in the moonlight, singing songs 'til midn ight bunny
Kate and Emma, Maxine and Melissa laughing in the moonlight
