Kiss Chase

Tiny children on their own They learn so fast How to make new friends How to play their new games

I remember a man he had shiny hair Always hanging around when you went away

Little eight year old She knows too many secrets Much too young to understand What it means

I remember a woman with silver hair And the smell and the taste of the bed we shared

And that's how I behaved Every time that you went away And now, though I'm older nothings changed (Playing the same games)

And I knew every day Came a chance that you'd leave me So I found what I could to take your place

Told me not to cry Said that I'd survive As he waved goodbye

And I want to try Not to make you cry Want us to survive Never say goodbye

But that's how I behave when you go away Because though I'm older nothings changed (Playing the same games)

And I know every day There's a chance that you'll leave me So I find what I can to take your place
