

Last Night

Lush

And even in your darkest hour
The recipe I cook for you
Can release its latent power
And make your body feel brand new

Can't you hear the music play?
Being centre of what you want
Try to leave the past behind
Memories don't appeal

Ah-oh, all the things we said
Ah-oh, all the things we did
Ah-oh, all the things that passed
Ah-oh, were satisfied

(Conversation)

Philip: So what, what was he like?

Melissa: We went out of the room, sat on the ... walked into the bathroom/berth(?)... I don't remember anything else I had to say...

Philip: Well, that's...very well. They always say that. It's very moving.

You're not going to get away with it this time, that's for sure
