

Standing At Your Grave

Lustra

I'm standing at your grave
And you've forgotten me
For not forgiving you
I wonder if it's right
To feel the way I do
Cause I feel so empty
I wonder what went wrong
When all I did was right
When all I did was right
I wonder where you are
Nothing seems so far
But it feels so empty
And you let it slip away
We're getting older now you say
We're getting older now
We're getting older now
Driving by your house
The windows all blacked out
The lights are all down low

I wonder where you are
Nothing seems so far
But it seems so empty
Then you let it slip away
We're getting older now you say
We're getting older now
We're getting older now
We're getting older now
Standing at your grave
But I feel so empty
Try and take it back
I'm trying to take it back
And I feel so empty
And you let it slip away
We're getting older now you say
We've gotten older now
We've gotten older now
