

Serious

Luther Allison

You thought I was gone, I came back
I want you to know babe I'm as serious as a heart attack
Let me love you, let me try
I want to stay today, I want to share your life
I'm serious, so serious, I'm serious
Serious as a heart attack, hey hey, I'm serious
I'm serious, serious, serious

One cup of coffee, two cups of tea
One for you babe I need two for me
I see you like to wine an dine
You get the glass and I'll get the wine
I'm serious, so serious, I'm serious
Serious as a heart attack, hey yaa, I'm serious
I'm serious, serious, serious

Serious about that new thing when I meet
Serious about the way you look everyday
Serious about the way you wear your hair
Serious about been home, when you ain't there, hey hey
I'm serious, so serious, I'm serious
Serious as a heart attack, well well I'm serious, I'm serious
I'm serious, baby baby baby
