

Emotion Eyes

Luther Vandross

Tears on your pillow, that's evidence
Crying all night, it don't make no sense
Never know what to do so the tears come out
I used to wonder what this thing was all about

You're so sensitive, so willing to give
Girl, you're just a cutie, yeah, yeah
But everything hits your tender spot
I think, I see just what you've got

Emotion eyes, see what they wanna see
They just won't let it be
There's always something goin' on
Emotion eyes, can't seem to be without
Something to cry about
They just get so emotional

My, oh, mercy me, just what do you see
Nothing stops those tears from coming, coming down
What's the matter child? Don't you ever smile?
Watching you is really something
That's why I'm falling for your love

You don't need to struggle with your badness
'Cause you're the baddest girl there'll ever be
You've got to learn to compromise
You've got to dry your weeping eyes
Watch what you see with those

Emotion eyes, see what they wanna see
They just won't let it be
There's always something goin' on
Emotion eyes, can't seem to be without
Something to cry about
They just get so emotional

You know I'm falling for your love

You don't need to struggle with your badness
You're just the baddest girl there'll ever be
You've got to learn to compromise
You've got to dry your weeping eyes
And watch what you do with those

Emotion eyes, see what they wanna see
They just won't let it be
There's always something goin' on
Emotion eyes, can't never be without
Something to cry about
They just get so emotional

Emotion eyes, see what they wanna see
They just won't let it be
There's always something goin' on
Emotion eyes, don't seem to be without
Something to cry about
They just get so emotional

I wanna see, let it be
I, be without, cry about
I wanna see, let it be
I, be without, cry about
I wanna see, let it be
I, be without, cry about
I wanna see, let it be
