She Saw You

Luther Vandross

Why did you tell your girlfriend you were hanging with the boys She called me last night and I tried to cover for ya She asked if I liked the flick that we all went out to see I said, "ooo uh, it was nice" She said, "Don't you lie to me" You messed up you should warned me first (she saw you) I'm sad to tell ya You shoulda told me 'cause you made it worse (she saw you) unlu cky fella You better take that credit card (she saw you) to Cartier You better hope with all you got (she saw you) She feels like forgiving you today Too bad for you You were out there trying to be a player, now she's gone, it's true It's hard to feel that sorry for you She saw you, now this is the end Saw you kiss the very girl (who's supposed to be) only your fri end She's convinced you took her heart And played with it like a toy And from what I heard, you just might need you a lawyer It's too late for feeling bad, you did not respect the girl You tried to play around And got caught with your pants down You can't escape from what you've done (she saw you) your time is up You're like a deer who's caught up in (she saw you) the headlig hts of love You can't be too proud to plead (she saw you) she's gonna make you pay Forgiveness is what you need (she saw you) she's too mad to let you get away Looks bad to me You were busy trying to be a player Now she's gone, breathe deep You can't be doing that creep, creep, creep, creep She saw you, now this is the end Saw you kiss the very girl (who's supposed to be) only your fri end
