

Eat Your Heart Out

Lydia

Oh you're back from the city
You're trying to make it all up to me
But where are we going?
Yeah, paint me up something golden

Well your words are sounding nice
I feel like I just won myself a prize
But I could never love her
Must be the blond hair

I got a fear, fear of falling
Still she'll toast, toast to the moment
Before it is broken
Shit, paint it all up something golden

Eat your heart out
'Cause I know
Know you got the world
Shit, paint it golden
Come on, eat your heart out
'Cause I'm sure, sure you got this world, so

Yeah, you told me one's for the money
But two I will never show
So I got a gold kit, paint me up something golden
And I know it's not worth it
When I see her alone
It makes my heart sink
Even though I know it's pointless
Shit, paint me up golden

Eat your heart out
'Cause I know
Know you got the world
Shit, paint it golden
Come on, eat your heart out
'Cause I'm sure, sure you got this world, so

Yeah we'll be, we'll be sleeping out on the pool deck
And drinking up all our paychecks
So come and find us, yeah come and find me
I want to see all your best words
I want to know how your brain works
So come and find me, yeah, you know it will be
My very last night in this city
So come and find me
It's golden

Eat your heart out
'Cause I know
Know you got the world
Shit, paint it golden
'Cause I'm sure, sure you got this world, so
It's golden

Eat your heart out

'Cause I know
'Cause I'm sure, sure you got this world, so
