

Skin+Bones

Lydia

There's a smile on my face again
'Cause I'm laying with her skin
Now I will be here all night
You best get your words right
'Cause I've tangled them before
She caught me running out the back door
Never will it happen again
Yeah I found out I've been

I've been out of my mind for some time now
Well come on, you knew that
You, you know where my head has been at
Yeah, but you're still hoping it comes back

I thought up words to say
I wrote them down for her sake
Never did she ever complain
Yeah, she's seen my worst days
'Cause we got so much to do
Yeah, the lights pour through your bedroom
Why would I leave here again?
Yeah I found out I've been

Out of my mind for some time
Well come on, you knew that
You, you know where my head has been at
Yeah, 'cause I've been out of my mind for some time now
But everybody knew that
Hope someday I get my head back
Yeah, ask it where the fuck it's been at
