

Unrequited Love

Lykke Li

Once again it's happening
Oooh, this love is unrequited

Twice the pain the suffering
Oooh, my love is unrequited
Oooh, my love is unrequited

That must mean I'll live again
And get back what I gave my men
Get back what I lost to them

Oh, the shame this crying game
Oh, my love I've been denied it
Oh, my love is unrequited

And I know it so well
I could play it by ear
Looking back at myself
While the violin plays
And blue is my tune
Another stitch to my wound
Another inch in this dwell
I know it all too well
When once again it's happening

Oh, our love has gone divided
Oooh, my love is unrequited
Oooh, my love is unrequited
Oooh, my love is unrequited
Oooh, my love is unrequited
