Paper Mansions

Lynn Anderson

Don't build for me no paper mansions that I can never call my o wn

For love can't live in paper mansions that only stand until you 've gone

You paint the nicest futures of anyone I know
You always leave me holding on to pretty words that glow

You've built a thousand mansions out of dreams that seem so str ong

But they're always made of paper not of stone Don't build for me...

You've always been a dreamer dear and I'm a dreamer too
But I guess I've had too many of the kind that don't come true
So don't build me no mansions with paper walls so thin
That only stand until you leave again
Don't build for me...
