

I Ain't the One

Lynyrd Skynyrd

1.2.3. .

Well, I'll tell you plainly baby
What I plan to do
say, I may be crazy woman
But I ain't no fool
Your daddy's rich, mama
And you're overdue
But I ain't the one, baby
Been messing with you Got bells in your mind, lady
and its easy to see
I think its time for me to move along
I do believe

Now your're talking jive, woman
When you say to me
that your daddys gonna take us in baby
'N take care of me
You know and I know, woman
I ain't the one
I never hurt you sweetheart
I never pulled my gun
Got bells in your mind, mama
and its easy to see
I think its time for me to move along
I do believe

"its time for me to put my boots out on the street missy Are you ready boots ? Walk On" repeat 2nd verse.

"Well I must be in the middle of some kind of conspiracy!"
