

I've Been Your Fool

Lynyrd Skynyrd

Well, ever since I met you, babe, see you've been running around

Spendin' my hard earned money on any ol' man in town

I've been your fool, oh, I've been your fool

I've been a fool ever since, mama, I met you

Now I got something to you, mama, I ain't gonna say no lie

Ain't gonna stand no runnin' around, don't wanna hear no alibi

I've been your fool, oh, I've been your fool

I've been a fool ever since, mama, I met you

You've taken everything I had, you hurt me deep inside

Money wasn't good enough, you had to take my pride

I've been your fool, oh, I've been your fool

I've been a fool ever since, mama, I met you

Oh, I've been a fool, baby, yes, I have

Now I've got something to tell you, fine mama, I ain't gonna say no lie

Ain't gonna stand no runnin' around, don't wanna hear no alibi

I've been your fool, oh, I've been your fool

I've been a fool ever since, mama, I met you

You've taken everything I had, babe, you hurt me deep inside

Money wasn't good enough, you had to take my pride

I've been your fool, oh, I've been your fool

I've been a fool ever since, mama, I met you
