

Storm

Lynyrd Skynyrd

There was a time that you believed
That nothing could happen to you
You were in a place, deep in a hole
So dark that you could not see, oh

Everyday the rain won't fall
The sun will come out and shine on us all
There's a light at the end for you, my friend
Oh, take it from me, the storm will someday end
Will someday end

So much has changed inside your heart
We can tell it's tearin' you apart
We share your pain and feel your hurt
But holy water cleanses the dirt, oh

Everyday the rain won't fall
The sun will come out and shine on us all
There's a light at the end for you, my friend
So, take it from me, the storm will someday end

Sun is gonna shine
And the rain won't fall
Storm is gonna pass

Yeah, you were, ohh, stuck in a hole

Everyday the rain won't fall
The sun will come out and shine on us all
And the light at the end, for you, my friend
Oh, take it from me, yeah, yeah

Everyday the rain won't fall
The sun will come out and shine on us all
There's a light at the end for you, my friend
Take it from me, the storm will someday end

It's gonna end, oh
It's gotta end
